CLIENT AGREEMENT

FEE AGREEMENT

This agreement is in response to client's desire to retain Jamison Legal Group for professional credit services.

ITEMS NOT TO BE NEGOTIATED

For Clients that opt to use our dispute service, the undersigned agrees as follows. I (the client) believe that all negative items which appear on my consumer credit reports may not be accurate, timely, or verifiable and I want Jamison Legal Group to attempt to get them deleted or verified as being accurate. I agree to email a list of the negative items that I feel are 100% accurate and verifiable to DoNotDisputeThese@jamisonlegalgroup.com. I understand that the items I email to that address will not be disputed or attempted to be removed and will remain. (If you do not email a list of any items and if you told us you wanted us to dispute your negatives, we will assume that all negative items are inaccurate and should be disputed.) Unless otherwise instructed by you via an email to DoNotDisputeThese@jamisonlegalgroup.com, Jamison Legal Group will assume that the reason you are asking us to dispute the negative items that appear on your credit reports falls under one or more of the following categories:

- I do not recall these listings as they are being reported.
- I do not believe these listings are being reported accurately.
- I think that I may be a victim of Identity Theft.
- The status of these listings isn't accurate, and they may not belong to me.
- I do not believe these listings are verifiable.
- I believe there may be a file mix-up with another person.
- I was never late on this account.

Attorney Client Relationship

If in the future Jamison Legal Group and Client decide to pursue a lawsuit against the credit bureaus and/or creditors, client would need to sign a separate retainer agreement with an Attorney that may or may not be employed by Jamison Legal Group. This current agreement in no way creates an Attorney Client relationship between Client and anyone at Jamison Legal Group. A separate agreement would need to be drafted and signed to create an Attorney/Client relationship and client agrees that this agreement does not create that Attorney Client relationship in any way.

Fees for Services/ Cancellations

Client agrees to allow Jamison Legal Group "a division of Identity Theft Solutions LLC, a Nevada LLC" to charge their credit or debit card for the agreed upon fee.

LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY

Jamison Legal Group “a division of Identity Theft Solutions LLC” needs your permission to communicate and negotiate with banks, financial institutions, credit agencies, credit bureaus, creditors, collection agencies, courts, the Internal Revenue Service, student loan associations, attorneys, medical professionals, and other organizations and individuals on your behalf. Jamison Legal Group also needs limited Power of Attorney to login to IdentityIQ on your behalf in order to get updated credit reports on your behalf.

By signing below, you are agreeing to the terms on pages 2 and 3 in the new client package above and giving Jamison Legal Group limited power of attorney to perform the above items on your behalf, and permission to write letters to the credit bureaus and creditors on your behalf if needed in the future. You may cancel the power of attorney at any time by sending Jamison Legal Group an email to poa@jamisonlegalgroup.com notifying us of your withdrawal. Please note that if you decide to withdraw the power of attorney, we will have to cancel your subscription at that time since we cannot legally provide you the paid services of Identity Theft resolution or give you updated credit advice since we can't legally login to your IdentityIQ account.

By signing below, You “the Client” also agree that we are permitted to charge your credit or debit card listed on page 3 above for the agreed upon fee referenced in the email you received from us with this package attached.

Client agrees to be legally bound by the terms in this agreement and agrees that they have fully read and agree with all items and terms in this NEW CLIENT PACKAGE “Client Agreement” on this page and on pages 2 and 3 above and give Jamison Legal Group limited power of attorney to perform any needed actions detailed above.
